

Task 3: Presentation Creation

Objective:

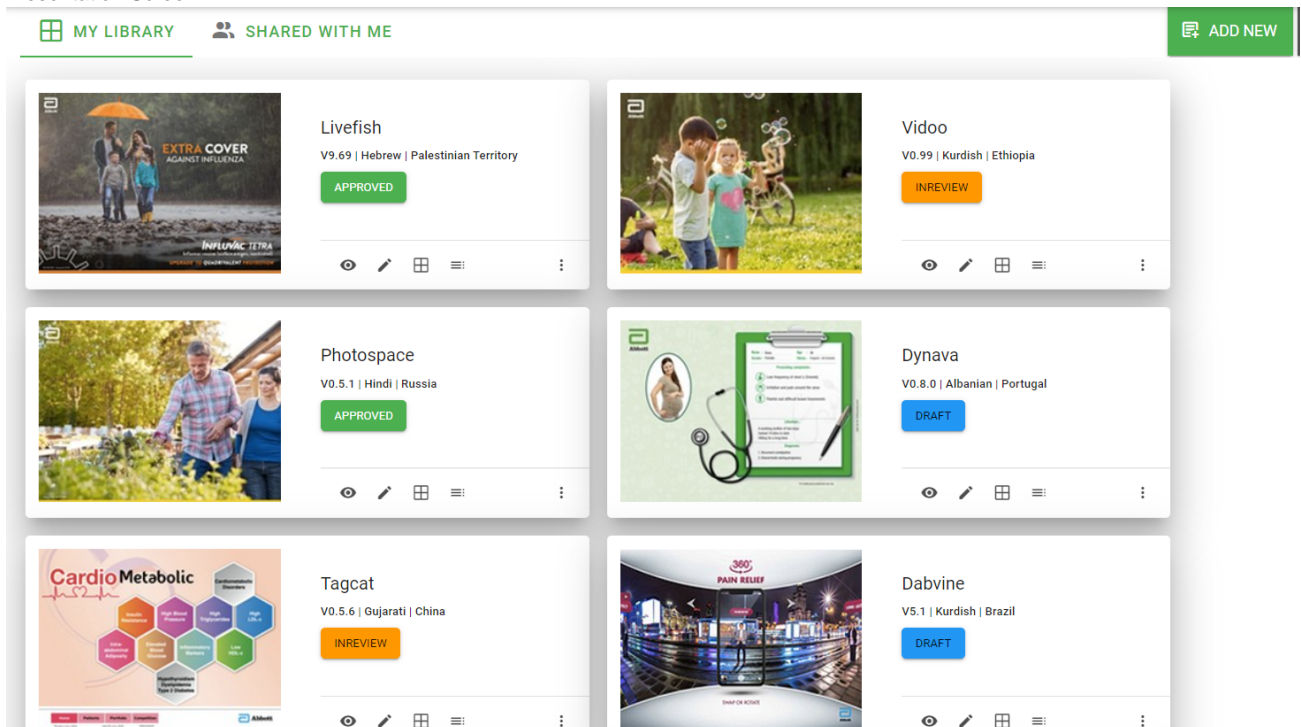

User can create Presentation with different types of HTML components.

Definition of Done

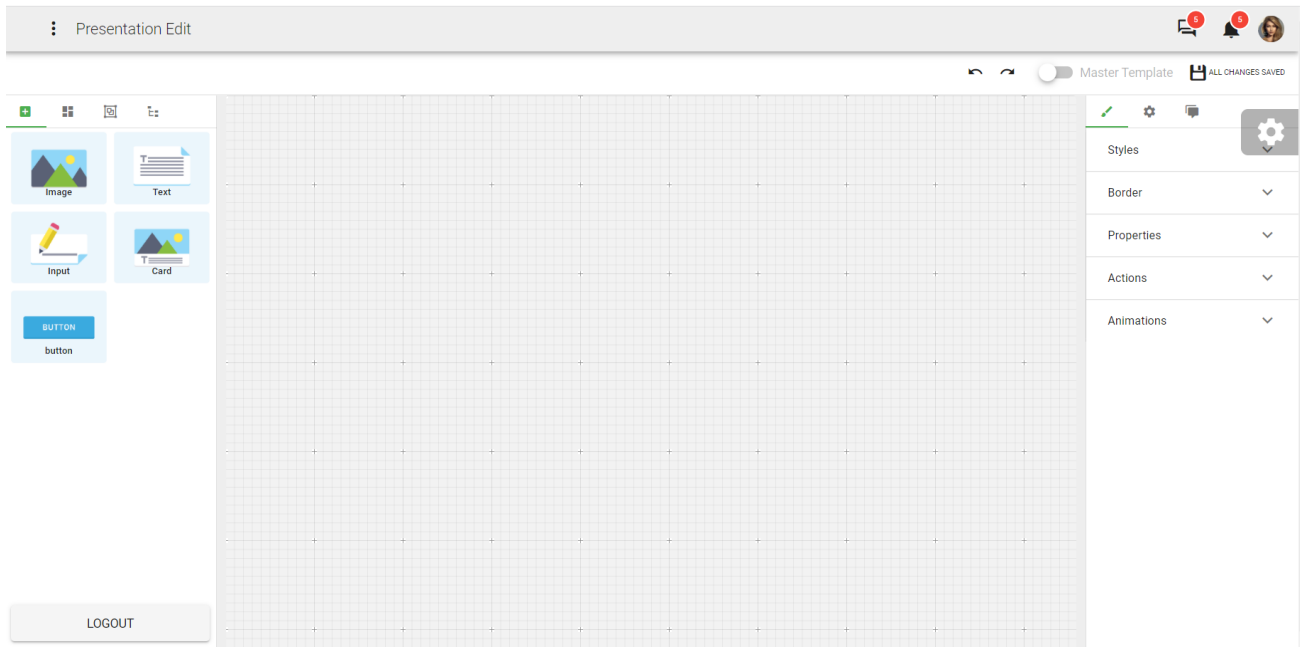

- User can Create the Presentation by given presentation name.
- User can see the canvas screen after the presentation creation
- User have Two component which he can use to create presentation by clicking or dragging those component into canvas area.
- Those component also move and stretch by dragging the component. example shows in below images.
 - Components
 - Text
 - text component have different styles & properties from which user can style the text like bold and Italic. example shows in below images.
 - Image
 - Image component have property to upload the image from Url or device
- User can save his work.
- User can edit previously created presentation slide by clicking on edit button.

Reference images just for example and idea:

- Presentation Screen

- Canvas Screen

- Text component properties

